Make Your Own Luck

Be Resilient

Resilience is the ability to work with adversity in such a way that one comes through it unharmed or even better for the experience. Resilience means facing life's difficulties with courage and patience – refusing to give up. It is the quality of character that allows a person or group of people to rebound from misfortune, hardships and traumas.

Resilience is rooted in a tenacity of spirit—a determination to embrace all that makes life worth living even in the face of overwhelming odds. When we have a clear sense of identity and purpose, we are more resilient, because we can hold fast to our vision of a better future.

Much of our resilience comes from community—from the relationships that allow us to lean on each other for support when we need it.

A Letter From Mr. Murphy

To the Class of 2013:

Congratulations on the wonderful four years of success that are ending with your graduation from West Boylston Middle/High School. The staff, parents, family members, friends, and the WB community are honored to celebrate this momentous occasion with all of you. You've worked hard to get here and deserve this precious moment.

West Boylston is a small community that is ideal for making life-long friends and lasting memories. You'll look back on all the success with great pride but the memories will stir your heart. The many days spent side by side in classrooms working, sharing, and at times even competing can't be erased from your experience. The activities of dances, spirit weeks, proms, coffee houses, themes, community service projects, and winning the first Super Bowl since 1988 are burned into your memories of life in high school.

The Class of 2013 has presented itself honorably and been recognized in so many areas for outstanding accomplishments. Both our girls and boys teams have competed in a league where we are the smallest, but with the greatest heart. Titles and tournaments won were not the exception under the leadership of this talented class of athletes. Art work from your class has been displayed at the Worcester Art Museum, in Boston, and at the National Art Educators' Convention in Texas. Your record setting work in community services through many organizations in the school has provided food, clothing, and other supports for many who are needy in the Worcester area. These are just some examples of the talent and caring that your class has shared these last four years.

Again, we want to congratulate you for reaching your goal of graduation and wish you the very best in all your endeavors for the future. Your contributions to our school will long be remembered and great things are coming from each and every one of you after you leave our hallowed halls at WB.

Build the life you dream about and leave the world a better place than you found it. This is what you've done for our school, now do it for the world. Pay it Forward!

Mr. Murphy

Dedication

The Class of 2013 would like to dedicate this year's yearbook to our guidance counselor, Mrs. McQuade. Mrs. McQuade has been an unbelievable support system, especially this year. Without her, we would not have been able to handle the stressful college application process. She has helped us not only with figuring out what colleges we wanted to apply to, but also what we wanted to do once we got there. She's guided us in helping to figure out what we really want our future to hold, and because of that, they have never looked brighter. She has always been there whenever we need her, whether it's for school, college, or any problems we may be having. We also want to congratulate Mrs. McQuade on her many years working at West Boylston Middle/High School. Thank you for all that you have done for us and all the classes before us. You will be sorely missed!

Seniors 2013

You have to leave the city of your comfort and go into the wilderness of your intuition. You can't get there by bus, only by hard work and risk and by not quite knowing what you're doing, but what you'll discover will be wonderful. What you'll discover will be yourself.

—Alan Alda

Growing up is never easy. You hold on to things that were. You wonder what's to come. But that night, I think we knew it was time to let go of what had been, and look ahead to what would be. Other days. New days. Days to come. The thing is, we didn't have to hate each other for getting older. We just had to forgive ourselves... for growing up.

—The Wonder Years

Beginnings are scary, endings are usually sad; it's what you do in between that counts the most.

—Unknown

Graduation is only a concept. In real life every day you graduate. Graduation is a process that goes on until the last day of your life. If you can grasp that, you'll make a difference.

—Arie Pencovici

Don't be dismayed at goodbyes. A farewell is necessary before you can meet again. And meeting again, after moments or lifetime, is certain for those who are friends.

My experience at West Boylston High School has been unforgettable. I couldn't have made it through without the help and support of my loving family. I want to thank my best girls Sam Shepard, Emily Walker, and Alesska Acosta for sticking by my side throughout the years, and always having my back. The long journey has finally come to an end, and we all made it! I couldn't have asked for a better class. (: Congratulations class of 2013!

It's hard for me to believe I'm already a senior! High school has gone by so fast. It feels like just yesterday I was starting school, and now we'll be moving on to new beginnings. I'd like to thank my parents for always encouraging me to do my best and for always believing in me. Allie, Josiel, Kayla, Liz, and Lisbeth you guys are the best. I couldn't have asked for better people to have in my life. Morgan, Lisania, Noura, Amy Balls, Hannah, Alexys and Emily, you guys have made this journey worthwhile. I thought this time would never come, thanks for everything. To the class of 2013 I wish you all the best in life, I'll miss you all.

I am so happy my senior year has finally come. I can't wait to leave this school. I will not miss it either. I want to thank my parents for always being there for me. The rest of the family has also been a great support. Alissa, I consider you one of my best friends even though you are my sister. Morgan and Laura, You girls have been my two best friends all through my life. We have had so many fun, crazy times together that I will never forget. Nick, we have had so many amazing times together, with much more to come ;). And lastly to the bakery crew: I love all of you! I think of you guys as my second family. You're the best<3

For the past seventeen years I've lived, laughed, and grown in West Boylston. I've shared memories with my family, friends, and classmates. At times I couldn't wait to get out; but at the same time I wouldn't trade my life here for anything. I'd like to thank my family for supporting me (both immediate and extended). Mom and Dad, you have been so great about everything. You push me when you know I can do better, let me talk to you if I need to, but most importantly you let me follow my dreams. Ben, you are without a doubt a thorn in my side, but we have fun be it at my expense or yours. You're a pretty great brother sometimes. Amanda, I know you can't wait till I get out of the house but I know I'll miss talking to you and joking around. Brianna, my best friend, thank you for sticking by me through everything. We've had our ups and downs but through it all you're the greatest best friend I could ask for. The memories we have together are amazing. And finally to the Class of 2013, I wish you luck on all your endeavors!

Throughout the limited time I have been at West Boylston, I have truly loved every moment. I was immediately welcomed into the lion's family and felt at home right away. This small town school has opened my eyes to new experiences, amazing learning opportunities, and allowed me to make great friends. I have grown tremendously as a person since coming to West Boylston with the help of my teachers, peers, and coaches. I will cherish the many memories made and remember the time spent here for the rest of my life.

It feels like it was just yesterday that I walked through the doors of West Boylston Middle/ High School for the first time, as a sixth grader. Now I take my last steps down the halls I've walked down for the past four years, and walk out the doors for the last time as a high school graduate. I would like to thank my family for always being there for me through all the good and not so good times. I wouldn't be standing before everyone in my cap and gown with the rest of my class, if it weren't for the love and support from my loving family. I would also like to thank all the friends that have been there for me throughout the years. There's been good times and good memories shared. Unfortunately we lose some friends along the way but gain more through the journey and make new memories. Time really has flown by so fast. Its time to move forward and leave my high school years behind. Some things end so that new and better things can start. A new and exciting experience awaits and I'm ready for it.

The fact that I can finally say "I"m a senior!" makes me happy, ecstatic and nervous all at once! These past four years have been the most unforgettable years of my life. They have taught me lessons, given me knowledge in both academics and life itself, and have molded me into the person I am today. My high school experience wasn't easy at all, but I am so happy that I went through it and wouldn't change one thing. Thank you to my parents and the rest of my family for supporting me through every single thing I've done, helping me when I've needed them the most, and most of all loving and accepting me for who I am. Also, thank you to all of my friends and my boyfriend for being amazing, unforgettable people, and for all of the support. A HUGE thank you to my best friend Amy Baldarelli and her entire family for being a second family to me. Lastly, thanks to my PAW family, teammates, and teachers for being great people and making this whole experience fun. I love all of you. I can't wait to see what the future holds and good luck to everyone!

I can't believe it's actually over. High school went by faster than I ever could have imagined, and I had the time of my life. I want to thank my mom and dad for always being there for me and for putting up with all of my shenanigans, you truly are the best parents. Brianna- I don't know how I could have made it through high school without you, We have had so many crazy fun times,and so many inside jokes. I'm really going to miss it. Antonia- you've been there for me through everything you are an amazing friend, and I'll always be here for you no matter what. Kenz- I love you, you are the craziest, funniest, greatest person I know. We have had some of the best times together, keep it real in Webo next year and enjoy your senior year. DP co. thank you for everything, high school wouldn't have been the same without you princesses. Cheerleaders- you girls are amazing, I couldn't have asked for a better team my senior year. I have seen this team through so many ups and downs, and I'm so proud of what we've accomplished. Keep pushing girls, you deserve it. Good luck Class of 2013, it's been fun.

I can't believe High School is finally over. I would just like to thank my family and friends for getting me through these unforgettable years. I would like to thank my Mom and Dad for always being by my side and teaching me the values in life. I love you so much and I greatly appreciate everything that you do for me. George, you are the best little brother I could ask for. I love you so much and I will always have your back. Big thanks to the Pusateri family for being like my second family. Next I would like to thank all my friends for such a memorable time in high school. Emily, you have stuck with me thought all 4 years and we are like sisters now. I'm going to miss you so much my little apple. Morgan and Alesska thanks for all the laughs, good times and lunch time talks. And the rest MM, JC, SS, AP, JZ, JP, CS and STUCO love you all. I could start this write-up by saying how fast these 4 years have flown by, but I think that's basically a given. The determination, stress, and drive I've put into my years here at WB high are ones I will never regret. Though moving on is scary, my time here is finished and that is something I have learned to accept. Mom, thank you for being my best friend, I am indebted to you. Dad, thanks for bestowing the urge to succeed in me. To Nick and Ben, thank you for keeping me laughing "even in the darkest of times". I love you all more than you know. My girls: Andrea, what can I even say? Best friends since preschool and you just get me. Thanks for always having my back and being there to vent to. "Now go get your chocolate milk." Kell, you make every day brighter. Thanks for being there even in the hard times. Ray, thanks for all the laughs and always being there to call at 1 AM. My soccer, basketball, and softball girls, I love you all! TO, MM, SS, LF, CS, LB, AP, my stuido art table, and all my underclassmen buddies: thanks for the unforgettable memories<3 Congratulations class of 2013, I wish you all the best!

"We fly high, no lie, you know this"

Now as we embark on a new page
Gaining more experience as we age
We look back on these past four years
All of the smiling, arguing, anger, and tears
There comes a time where we part our own ways
But we make the best of our last days
Our teachers becoming our heroes
Helping us rise up from being zeroes
Becoming our own family and friends
Getting over drama and making amends
It is time that we say goodbye
Ending our ties in our Senior High
The only thing that matters now is all of our actions
Don't cry because it's over, smile because it happened

I know I speak for everyone when I say "Where has the time gone?" I feel like just yesterday was the first day of freshman year walking in so scared, sophomore year dragging on wishing it would just end, Junior year transferring to West Boylston High School and everyone making me feel like I have been there forever, like part of the lion family, and now senior year flying by. Everyone always said high school goes by so fast so enjoy it. I always took that for granted. I would like to thank my mama for always being there for me and my decisions and making me the person I am today, and my best friend Kathy for also being there for me through everything. Love you two so much! And I would also like to thank the class of 2013 for making me feel like part of their family, its been the best year I could have asked for.

I can't believe that senior year is here already. Actually, yes I can. School took forever, but I didn't expect this year to fly by as fast as it did. I couldn't have imagined a more perfect start and I can only imagine an even better finish. I'd like to thank everyone that made getting to this point possible. I'd especially like to thank my parents and my family. Without them nothing would be possible. I'd also like to thank all of my friends, especially Matt, Dave, Nate, Rachel, Michelle, Tyler, Rodrigo, Jake, and Brian for making fun of my every action and making every waking moment of my life as comically miserable as possible. I don't know what I'd do without you. I'd also like to thank all of the West Boylston Middle/High School staff for putting up with me. On an ending note, I'd like to thank all of the members of the 2012 Super Bowl winning Lions football team. All of you made this year one of the best of my life. Class of 2013, we did it! High school has been an amazing four years and I have grown from all the experiences that have come with it. I can't believe our time has finally come! As exciting as it is to graduate, I wouldn't trade the time and memories that I have made here for anything. I have accomplished so much in this time thanks to everyone who has always been there to support me. At the top of that list is my family; I want to thank them for always being there for me to fall back on. I want to thank them for the laughs and advice that they have given me to help me push forward in life. Parents, grandparents, sisters (Tati, Kassie, & Precious) brothers (JJ & Marcus) aunts & uncles, cousins, best friends: Rachel O'Connor, Alesska Acosta & Anthony Perrone, my other half and boyfriend; we have been through so much and just as you've been, I'll always be here for you guys <3, I wouldn't have made it without you… Congratulations class of 2013 and good luck in your futures!!!

Oh, it's senior year? I didn't even notice... It seems like just yesterday I was at Major Edwards running on the playground; young, wild, and free. Sometimes I wish I could go back in time and re-live all of the memories I had as a child growing up in my hometown of West Boylston. I don't regret anything that occurred throughout these past 18 years because I think everything happens for a reason; and that reason is to build you into the person you are today. My friends & family also molded me into who I am, and I thank them for that. Corrie, Nick, Phillip, Geoffrey, Chris & Zack have been there for me through thick and thin and I know our friendships are the kind that last a lifetime. It's hard to believe that I'm moving on into the real world next year, making new memories that I'll remember forever. Thank you WBHS for giving me some of the best years that I will never forget... But it's finally time to get out of here and make something of myself. BYE BYE WB.

I can honestly say that coming to West Boylston was the best choice I ever made. These past four years have been packed with unforgettable memories and great friends. I would like to thank my parents for all their love and for always being there for me. Los quiero mucho. Diego and Hilmarie; you guys are really annoying but no one can ever make me laugh like you guys do and I love you. To all my friends, you guys definitely made high school memorable. Sarah, it makes me laugh the way we became friends just by a compliment you gave my converse. Alanna; every time you laugh, I can't help it but laugh too. I might need you at college so you can hold my earrings! Corey; you are an amazing artist; by the way, that chair is still waiting for your next show! Amina; don't forget my amazing tour! You are wicked funny and I hope the sock monkey keeps traveling around. Maggie; I won't forget that amazing bonfire you had ages ago. "Everyone dies famous in a small town." - Miranda Lambert

Well, it's what we've all be waiting for, we are seniors at WBHS! It's been an experience not many people can say they have had. Literally. Throughout the years I could not have asked to meet better people and make better friends than I have. Thank you all for being such great friends and help shape my character. It's been fun, and I know I'll be friends with some of you long after college! My family has been unbelievable from start to finish and I can't even express how thankful I am that they are the way they are. As much as I can't believe the process of high school is really over, I'm ready. Good luck to everyone, wherever you may end up! Make way, here comes West Boylston Middle/High School Class of 2013!

I ain't the son of the seventh son,
black cats won't cross my path
Good luck comes I just watch it run and it sure does run out fast
I wasn't born under no bad sign, but it was friday the 13th
East, west, no, yes
Hot, cold, tell you this Ain't nothin' in between Its either good luck -- I'm the last to get it
Bad luck -- I'm the first
When it's good, ain't nothin' better
When it's bad, ain't nothin' worse

Well life can be a little hard sometimes, you do what you gotta do
A lot depends on the luck a man has and the cards that's been dealt to you

Matthew Pais Loureiro

Better days are in the cards I feel
Feel it in the changin' wind
I feel it when I fly

So talk to me I'll listen to your story
I've been around enough to know
That there's more than meets the eye
Everybody needs a little good luck charm

With a little love and luck
You will get by
With a little love and luck
We'll take the sky
In this megalo-modern world
You've got to try
Try a little love and luck
And you'll get by

I can't believe that high school has already come to an end! Time flies! I want to thank my Mom and Dad for getting me where I am today. Thanks to my sister, Tyler, for always supporting my dreams, no matter how crazy they were. Thank you so much Lionel for helping me with my homework and life and being the best cuddle buddy ever. Thanks for being my best friend for life. To all my family, including but not limited to Becca, Adri, Adam, Marjie, Ryan, Una, and Aaron, I love you guys. Good luck in the future to my precious niece, Amaya. A special thanks to all my teachers, but especially to a select few, who helped so much to get me where I am today. Thanks to everyone who has stuck by me throughout the years; I couldn't have asked for better friends. And congratulations to my fellow seniors! I've had a great four years with you all. Good luck and well, we made it!

"You've got to jump off cliffs all the time and build your wings on the way down." -Ray Bradbury

These past four years have been some of the most exciting and excruciating years of my life, filled with definite stress as well as countless joys. I never could have made it through these years without the love and support of those around me. My mom has been a constant pillar on which I can lean for support, even when I am making crazy decisions, and for that I absolutely love her. I certainly would have gone utterly mad had it not been for the amazing connections I have made these past years with some of the greatest people on Earth; my friends. They have helped me keep my sanity throughout these years with all their kindness. From Warped Tour with Sarah and Alanna to summer movie nights in Amy's basement, to late nights at my cousin's, swimming under the stars, dancing in the light of the streetlamp, and watching the lightning storms in the distance as we celebrated the 4th of July, my friends have always been there to help me relax and enjoy my life. When I needed someone to talk to, I could always count on them, especially Mikenna (meow), Emily, or Jenna. West Boylston has been my home all my life and the people here have been my family. I cannot thank them, all of them, enough for everything they have done for me. I love them all.

I can't believe high school is over. This has been the best four years of my life. Now it's on to college and jobs; everyone says that this will be the best time of my life. I cannot wait to be in college and pursue my life goals. I know that I did not get here all by myself. I have had so much help along the way these past four years. First, I want to thank all of my teachers for their help, support, and guidance. Second, I want to thank my family for their support and help with everything. And of course, I want to thank my friends for being there for me – yeah, that means you SG, JF, JH, CB, JBJ, JF, TS, and SM! When we are all off to college, we'll remember all the fun and adventures we had together. So, Class of 2013 – thanks for being the best class at West Boylston High School that I could have ever hoped to be a part of! Good luck to everyone in everything you do in the future!

It feels like yesterday that I walked into Major Edwards, scared and friendless. How do 7 years pass so quickly? Mome, thank you for being my best friend, the Lorelei to my Rory. Even though we butt heads (often), I know you'll always be my backbone. Genevieve and Melanie: Auntie loves you!! To the rest of my family: I don't know where I'd be without you. You're all completely mad...and I wouldn't have it any other way. MP: Sweeney Depp Jr; Where's the Mountain Dew?! SR: The best husband a girl could ask for! Ducklings ending the Civil War? AJ: I'll always hold your earrings. AB and KB: my Awkward Freshmen! I'll miss your sarcasm and hugs. Shmehhhh TA: Thanks for being so ridiculous and trustworthy. RL: Too acidic for basic Libby. WHAT?! #field8problems MM: Thank you for brightening my day. CM: Sorry I stole your skin. AZ: I'll miss your sass! StuCo: You have changed my life and I could not be more grateful. We finally made it Class of 2013! I'm so proud we've gotten this far and I couldn't have asked for a better class to share my high school experience with. Mom and Merry, thanks so much for being my biggest support system and putting up with me through everything. Breezy, thank you for being the best little sister I could ever ask for. You'll always be my number one and I couldn't have done this without you. Daddy and Kristin, I love you both more than I could ever put into words. Thank you for picking me right back up whenever I was down. Lex, Amy, and Curt; my mainsqueezes! I'm so glad I get to call you three my best friends. You guys are champs for putting up with me for so long ;* AYO TODD, YOU MISTA TURCOTTE! Thank you so much for being one of my biggest supporters and pushing me to my limits. And to the Class of 2013! Good luck to all of you and I wish you all the best! Special thanks to: ACK, NAD, BJM, JP, ATD, CMD, KMS, KMS, MAP, JOP, TVB, JR, SCK. It's been real WB, smell ya lata!

I don't even know where I begin. Since coming to WB in 6th grade I have met some if the most amazing people and I can't believe I am going to be leaving them. Alanna, "SHUT UP SHUT UP SHUT UP! I GOTTA FINISH THE STORY BEFORE THEY GET IN THE CAR!" Maggie, were the only two people in the world who would fall asleep while watching Hannibal Lectar. Rachael, our trip to NH was amazing. Katie, "ys" "These are MY lamps!" Sarah, trips with your dad after school. Amy, helping me with Spanish. Amina, you're just a boss! Alex, such a good friend. My friends have helped me make it through everything at this school, an I love them so much for it. Mom and dad, thank you for everything you have ever done. I love you guys and I'm going to miss you when I finally leave home. Finally, thank you to all the teacher who have put up with me all these years. I wouldn't want to be in any other class that's the F13RCE class of 2013!

I can't believe we're seniors! These years with all of you have been amazing, and I couldn't have asked for better friends to graduate with. I want to thank my mom, dad, and Molly for all they have done for me. To AG, the ten years we've been friends have flown by, and Mamma, Bampa, and the brown house will forever be a huge part of my childhood. To JC, I have probably laughed more with you than anyone in the world, thank you for so many good times and for being such a good friend. LF, TO, ML, NM, RV, we fight like siblings, but I wouldn't have it any other way. To DP, thank you for everything, I love you. To everyone else who has made me laugh, you mean so much to me, and I wish I could thank you all individually. Good luck to the class of 2013 in all that you do. "Question Authority. Think For Yourself. Deny Everything"

It's tough to reflect on the past four years in less than two hundred words but I'm going to give it a shot. The friendships, relationships, and memories created over these last few years are truly immeasurable. There have been a range of emotions. In the beginning, I feared the unknown wondering where I would fit in, what courses I would take, and who I would hang out with. Through sports, student council, and everyday life, it has all been worth while. There were days that we never wanted to end such as our Thanksgiving win against Quabbin and those memorable moments in our first year with Mr. Murphy. I'd like to give mad props to Ms. Montouri who instilled a work ethic during my freshman year that remains with me today. I'd like to thank Coach S for all his support and wisdom during my time at West Boylston.. Much love to Mr. Salmonsen for "guiding" me through high school and being a great ally. And Finally, I want to thank Matt, Luke, Jake, Nate, Michelle, Jenna, and Rachel for making my senior year as enjoyable as it possibly could be. I wouldn't want to spend it with anyone else.

These years I've spent in high school have been the best so far, and I will never forget the people I've met and memories I've made here at West Boylston. Thank you mum and dad for always being my #1 fans and supporting me through everything. Dad thank you for teaching me my most important life lesson, "Nothing runs like a deere". Kristen, my other half, I can't thank you enough for watching out for me throughout the years. Trav, your support means the world to me and you'll always have a place in my heart. High school would not have been the same without all of my friends to make my experiences the best anyone could ask for; Em, my bestie from the beginning <3 Curtis and Jill, & The Crew. To my best friends Lex and Dray Fay, love you two! KF, EF, and AB, my sisters. Basketball girls, more than a team, a family <3 whoo-rahh. Sharks girls, my spring season will never be the same. I'll miss you! Soccer girls, House em' Spank em' Send em' home! Love you all! To my teachers and coaches for the past 12 years, you've shaped who I am today and I appreciate everything so much. Two hundred words are not nearly enough to fully describe my four years in high school. At some times, I'd say I loved it, and at others I'd rant about how I absolutely hated it. But if I had to sum it up in one phrase, it'd be that high school has been an adventure. I've grown as a student, but even more as a person. The things I've experienced, as well as the people I've met, have helped me become who I am now; who I'm proud to be.

Alanna, I promise I'll be a guest on your radio show. Amy, I hope you're my nurse if I ever end up in the hospital. Sarah, if you end up being a hobo, feel free to stop by my place. Bri… don't get hurt in the Marines. Alaska, stay gold. Alan and Kelsey, don't have too much fun in WB without me. Thor… Loki loves you. John… your Sherlock is here to stay.

As the years have gone by, I can't believe that in a few months I'll be handed my diploma and on to college. Looking back on it I wouldn't be able to have gotten this far without all my friends and family. Thank you, Mom Paul, Ben, and Matt for being the best family any one could ask for. Thanks Amy for all the great memories. High school wouldn't have been the same without you. Even though things change and people grow apart, it's a part of life and I am glad to be leaving high school with the few great friends I have. This sounds cliché, but there's no other way to say it – the years really flew by. Seems I just arrived freshman year, terrified to be starting a new school. As a grade you made me feel at home; it feels like I've known most of you my whole life. To my parents: You support me so much and have truly made me feel that I can do anything I set my mind to. My friends: Amy- Who could ask for a nicer friend? Stay you. Amina- You're hilarious and bring out my ghetto impressions –bad sight… Megan & Koos- Crazy you're gone this year, I miss you bunches! Alanna- Where to begin? You're my crazy other half, wife and one of my best friends. School wouldn't have been the same without ducks, flight-suits, the ince-ence-unce van & everything else that made for our weird stories. My Princeton Friends- You're the most eccentric and artsy people I know, love you all! My WBC family –You're nutcases but I couldn't ask to work with better people –OLMF for life! Europe trip- 'nuff said(: I hope to never lose touch with those who mean something to me. I'll look back on my high school years with countless fond memories, but its time for change and I can't wait for whatever the future holds! Stay classy WB!

I can't believe that senior year is finally here and it's almost graduation time. It seems like just yesterday that we were freshmen and so far away from graduating. I first want to start off by saying congratulations to everyone graduating in the class of 2013. It was great to be a part of such an awesome class. I have made many friends in these past years at West Boylston. I hope to stay in touch and keep these great friendships as we begin a new stage in our lives. I would like to thank my parents for always pushing me to do my best. You have inspired me to be an honest and hardworking man. I thank my siblings, Colleen, Sean, and Joanna for always being there for me through thick and the thin. Your constant support and guidance over the past several years has been appreciated. I thank God for blessing me with such a wonderful family. To my friends, congratulations graduates! It's been a great four years!

I'm a nice and kind person. I've done many things in the four short years of high school, but mostly I have moved around a lot. I have moved schools 4 times in my entire career and met a lot of nice people. I have had many nice teachers which include teachers from my previous school. A lot of the teachers helped me with my problem of never wanting to go to school, which changed my junior year when I had my favorite math teacher. Even though I have switched schools 4 times I consider myself to be a strong person and a person who is hard to make upset.

It is so incredible that these past four years have gone by so fast. It seems like yesterday, coming from the middle school and going into my freshman year. I looked at all the seniors graduating in my freshman year, and I remember saying, "Man I wish I was them." Now I look back at the freshman saying, "You'll get there soon enough." To be honest, having my mom and dad there for me was a great help. They made me get through high school and I love them for being there! And a special thanks to my older sister Nicole. Even though we had rough times, you always seemed to be there for me. I will never forget my grade and all the people that I talked to. I say thanks to all my friends for being there for me! You guys are the best! Congratulations class of 2013! We've made it people! I wish everyone the best of luck. Peace West Boylston High School.<3 (:

It's hard to believe that it's time for this already. It seems like just yesterday we were walking down the halls as freshmen. These past four years have really flown by, but luckily, I've been able to spend them with some really great people. There are so many that I want to thank. Mom- Thanks for always being there to help and for encouraging me to always do my best. I love you. Matt- THANKS FOR BEING THE BEST BIG BROTHER EVER. Grandma and Papa- Thank you for being so involved in my life and always being there for Mom, Matt, and me. I love you and was so lucky to have you both for as long as I did. I miss and love you Papa. Dad- Thanks for always wanting to be involved and helpful however you could. Finally, to all my friends- This experience would not have been as memorable if it were not for all of you. I really can't thank you enough. We have had such great times and I not only hope, but know, that I will be seeing you in the future. We finally made it. It still doesn't feel real. To be completely honest, I never thought that my time in the West Boylston schools would ever end. Since I was little, I have always denied growing up, but now that graduation is finally here, I know I have to face it head on. The past four years of high school have been crazy, with so many good memories to look back on; one being the Europe trip that was taken last spring. It was such an amazing, life-changing adventure that I am so thankful to have had to opportunity to experience. First, I would like to thank my mom and dad for always believing in me and making sure I always did what made me happy. Liv and Alec- I could not have asked for better siblings to have grown up with. To my friends, you guys know who you are, thank you for always being there and giving me a good laugh when needed! Last, but definitely not least, I'd like to thank Boots. Even though you're a cat, you've been my rock and most consistent companion these past few years. High school may be over, but I'm so excited to see what the future holds for all of us! I am speechless and have no words that can describe how I feel. High School has gone by way too fast and the memories I have made are priceless. My mother gave me all the knowledge and morals I needed to be successful in life and I can't say enough about you mom, I love you so much. Dad, you have simply been my inspiration and role model throughout my life. I have always looked up to you and still do and I thank you for all you have given me. Sam, I thank you for being and setting a great example for me throughout the years and if it wasn't for the path you left for me to follow I would be lost. Caitlin, you have always been one of my best friends and have always had my back no matter what. We get in fights and argue but when it comes down to it, we're always there for each other and I couldn't be more grateful to have someone like you in my life. I couldn't have asked for anyone more compassionate to take me under their wing during the hardest part of my life and I thank you Amy. Wow, I can't believe senior year is finally here! First off, I want to thank my two biggest supporters; my parents. I can't thank you enough for all that you have done for me. I wouldn't be the same person today if it wasn't for the two of you. Love you! To my siblings: Sarah, Bob, Dan & Shonna- love you guys. Thank you for all the pep talks, laughs, and jokes along the way! Noura, I don't even know where I'd be today if it wasn't for you. I couldn't ask for a better best friend. Love you so much! Twins for life (: Amy, I don't even know where to start! Friends since day one. So many amazing memories that I will never ever forget. Love you! Mikenna, thanks for always being there for me! It meant a lot<3 Hannah, way too many good times to even mention in here(: Curtis, thanks for always being that one person who could cheer me up no matter what my mood was! <3 AA,MC,JC,LF,CM, TO, JP, AM,SR,SS, KS,AT, TT &JZ thanks for all the great memories! To my class of 2013, good luck to you all! I know you'll do great!

"To laugh often and much; to win the respect of intelligent people and the affection of children; to earn the appreciation of honest critics and endure the betrayal of false friends; to appreciate beauty; to find the best in others; to leave the world a bit better, whether by a healthy child, a garden patch or a redeemed social condition; to know even one life has breathed easier because you have lived. This is to have succeeded."- Ralph Waldo Emerson

Wow! This is it guys! So apparently we are done with high school. Wait! What? When did that happen? I can't believe it. They always said it was going to be the hardest four years of our lives and how much we were going to change, but they failed to mention how fast it would go by… too fast. This chapter is now done and we can now finally say that after four long years of hard work, pain, and tears we are done and it was well worth it.
A big thank you to my parents and M.Z (s) for all the help with everything and anything! I love you guys! I couldn't have done it without you. To the group – I love you guys. Thank you! Thank you! Thank you... for being the kind hearted, lovely, and great people that you are. Thank you for welcoming me into your lives with open arms. It's been an amazing journey with you guys; from my first day up till now you guys have made my time here incredible.
Congratulations my fellow class of 2013 graduates. Wherever we go… whatever we do, may we be friends when we meet again.

"Go confidently in the direction of your dreams. Live the life you have imagined."-Henry David Thoreau

We live to rise, to grow in size
To never hide, but show our pride.

We love to live, and live to love
We never run, but reach reach the sun.

We understand, there's more to learn
We also know, to wait our turn.

We want to help, all we can
And go after, the ones who ran.

We stand to fight, for what is fair
So never think, that we don't care.

When you chose, to live like we
You will find, just who you can be.

What happens at picture day...

... Doesn't stay at picture day!

~Senior Will~

I, Rachael Baldi, would like to leave Mariah the copy of our book "The Yellow Submarine and You!", Abi my daily piece of dragon gum, and Chris my delicious yet unbreakable brownie recipe.

I, Emily Walker, would like to leave Abby Baker the five second car rides to intern and all the smiles and love that go along with it, and Abby Colangelo the strength and determination to make it through the rest of high school.

To the Underclassmen, let it be resolved that these objects are left to these people upon my graduation. To my brother Max, I, Tyler O'Day, grant you the captain-ship of the football team upon your senior year and hope you continue playing. To Tim Mercier, a key to unlock a set of handcuffs; I know you'll need it eventually. To Zack Luthman, I leave you my gas tank because you've owned it for about two years now. To Age, I leave you an unlimited amount of sweet tarts and sour patch watermelons. To Michelle, I leave you an angel with one wing. May it be resolved that you accept these objects.

I, Sarah Raymond, would like to leave Alan Blunt 180 hugs, one for every day of school. I'd like to leave Kelsey Book a cinder block to throw in front of herself in the hall in place of me ramming into her. And I'd like to leave both of them ALL of the Buckets of Bundles.

I, Kelly Sorge, would like to leave Michaela Hayes our "The Lying Game" talks at practice and the everyday basketball collisions; Erin Fleming the right side of the field and my love of soccer; Rissa Hayes the future generation of the "Harry Potter" fandom because someone has to take over when I'm gone and my excellent love advice; My soccer girls a good old HOUSE 'EM, SPANK 'EM, SEND THEM HOME; Katelynn Rizzuto my spot in the Erica run and good luck if you have to do it twice; and Christian Kent my advanced technological skills and an endless supply of fruit salad.

I, Andrea Tata, leave Michaela Hayes my TV show obsessions, Katie Gauthier the squishy stuff on the Woodland tennis courts and our tennis earmuffs, Mikaela Smith all of our talks at the cinema, and Alec Tata our jam sessions on the way to and from school.

How can I single just one person out when each of you have helped me grow? To all of the future seniors, I, Katie Crowley, leave my strength, endurance, courage, smarts, will-power, and humor. You're going to need these to become a senior. Don't be scared of college, don't get senioritis, don't give up on your dreams. Have the courage to stand up for what you believe in. DO YOUR HOMEWORK! Don't take everything so seriously, It's you last year of high school, HAVE FUN! To the future juniors I leave my resilience because you are going to absolutely need it. Work hard in your junior year, and work harder in your senior year. You're almost out, toughen up. To the future seniors and juniors, I leave my love. I came to your school last year and each of you welcomed me with open arms. I love you so much for that.

I, Corey Marsh, leave the NAHS and all the great experiences it has to offer to Olivia, Courtney, Audrey, Shannon, Heather, Stephanie, and Kyle. You guys are amazing and I know you'll continue to do incredible work. To Rachel, I leave all the jokes, puns, and obscure movie references to be made in a year of schooling. Don't worry if people don't get them, just keep sharing the laughter! To Alan and Kelsey, I leave a year of fun, from movie nights with friends to epic concerts (see you both at Warped Tour!). To Tess, I leave the many hours of enjoyment and toil to be found in the art room Keep on working hard and never stop creating! To Ryan, I leave a poorly done picture of a monkey on the bus that should be above the drawers where Mrs. Tetler keeps paper. To Trevor, I leave the path to graduation. You're almost there, pal. Hang in there. To Brandon, I leave all the opportunities I may have missed. Enjoy the next few years, bro!

I, Amy Javier, would like to leave my tennis skills to my sister, Hilmarie Javier. I would also like to leave nothing to my brother, Diego Javier because he is annoying <3

I, Alanna Moriarty, would like to leave infinite optimism to everyone. High school doesn't last forever: live up the good parts. To Alan Blunt I leave Whitney Houston serenades, lip ring fondles, and happy slaps. To Kelsey Book I leave the pictures with Jimmie and Every Avenue (I will be thinking of you later...), my intense PAW skills (ah-ha), hand-holding and the songs that come with it. To both the aforementioned, I leave Buckets of Bundles, Sarah_Raymond, infinite hugs, skittles, Apocalyptic Narwhals (The Movie), and long walks through scenic WeBo. To Tyler Armey, I leave StuCo memories and futures, the best of luck on the campaign trail, late-night rants, berry heh-bay baertations, prom, and Degrassi. To Hannah Goodale and Abby Baker I leave the picking-up, and guarding of, "the thun thun thun." To Tess Blodgett I leave my enthusiasm for life (because you need more enthusiasm...) and vegan apple muffins. To Mikaela Smith, I leave our ridiculous talks on the bus. To Rachel Langhill I leave Special Olympics (and the cake), computers and typewriters (WHAT?!?), multiple chins, and finger-painted LIG shirts (and pants and faces and everything else). Finally, I leave Hyannis to the best StuCo I could ask for. Love you all!

I, Jenna Coviello, leave Erika Smith: a compass so she never gets lost... mentally or physically, my fantastic advice, and our sisterly love; Katelynn Rizzuto: "Team Nice", our strange conversations, and the dread of the ladder drill at basketball; Bre Morrow: my trademark "J-Pow" nickname that I didn't want to stick, but learned to love, and a big hug; Amanda Benson: my #5 basketball jersey; Erin Fleming: the softball team, my sweeper position, and all the sass and joking towards Coach Peters; Tyler Armey: all the dirty jokes and thoughts in VHS and a box of "party" crackers from Price Chopper; Zack Luthman: my Vera Bradley lunch box and the constant reminders that "it is what it is"; Halley Cranston: her wings to fly; Kristina Economou: my love for softball and our overly enthusiastic high-fives/smiles at basketball and softball; Ryan McCullough: a face mask call on the defense; Rissa Hayes, Kerri Dougherty, Emma O'Malley, and Marissa Fortugno: metaphorical Big Time Rush tickets and my three second hand hold with James Maslow; and my soccer, basketball, and softball girls: all my love, my quick wit, and determination<3

I, Amy Peterson, leave Stephanie and Diane, my sisters, all of the farm chores; have a ball girlies <3 : Erin and Amanda, all of Katie's clothes that I keep finding, and my car so that you guys can hang out of the windows together like all of the crazy times we've had. : Erika Smith, an invitation to visit me whenever you'd like : Katelynn Rizzuto, my dance moves during free throws, and permission to take over my special passing with Amanda during warm-ups : Emma O'Malley, hair elastics to keep rockin' the bun, loud and proud : Nash Bourn, our Spanish games of ruzzle : & Hal, Lorraine, and Riy my jokes about Coach Todd Turcotte and all of my laughter fits during practice.

I, Curtis Stoychoff, would like to leave all my strawberries at lunch and the job of bullying Lex to Mikey Fradsham, a lifetime supply of wet willies to Lex Belezos and Natalie Phelps, all those early morning shifts at S&S to Halley Cranston, the future of the baseball team to Nash Bourn, and two cat emojis to Sarah Novia.

I, Tyler Smith, would like to leave my BMW car to my little sister Erika. I also would like to leave my putter to Zack Magarian and my driver to Nash Bourn. I hope someday they will win states. I also would like to leave the DECA club to Mike Hutchinson to keep the program running.

I, Lexi Bourn, would like to leave Nash Bourn the Bourn legacy; Halley Cranston all my knowledge and all the Bagel Inn bagels that we've eaten; Lexi Belezos my name and all my soccer assist;, Mariah Michalowski our "fake" but ~real~ glasses; Heather Cotter our awful singing to "Rehab" and crazy dancing; my little duckling Erin Fleming all my duckling footsteps, soccer goals, and basketball points; Lindsay Connor our summer car rides; Amanda Benson our early morning stuco meetings; Monica O'Brien all my free throws; Natalie Phelps my obsession with wanting her hot dance moves; Jessi Pohl our jam sessions in my car with the windows down and our amazing memories; and last but not least, Michael Fradsham all my love.

In Memory...

The class of 2013 would like to acknowledge the students who suffered the loss of their mothers during our journey through the West Boylston school system. These five students have shown the greatest resilience. We recognize and admire their strength through such a difficult experience. Although their losses brought great sadness, they also instilled a stronger sense of community and closeness throughout our class. These pages are dedicated to Lexi Bourn, Geoff Hill, Maggie Pinnow, Kelly Sorge, Travis Thunberg, and their families.

POWDERPUFF

With the seniors beating up on the freshmen in the first game, they were faced with playing the sophomores who had a respectable win over the juniors. Though it was a tight and evenly matched game, the seniors came out victoriously,winning 14-0, making this the third year in a row that the Class of 2013 has won Powderpuff. This game also made the seniors undefeated all around in Powderpuff! Congratulations seniors!!

This Year's Theme: Resilience

For the last three years, West Boylston High School has had a specific "theme" for the year. It began with bullying and harassment awareness, then community service, and this year, resilience. Throughout the year, different activities are created that relate to the theme of the year in order to keep it alive and memorable. The yearbook staff wanted to help keep the theme going by having the yearbook relate to resilience as well. "Make Your Own Luck" was actually borrowed from Rob Dyrdek's clothing brand of the same name. When explaining what "Make Your Own Luck" signified, he said, "It's all about... no one gives you anything in life. You have to work hard and go after it to get it." We felt that it helped stick to both the theme of Vegas and luck, and the theme of resilience. Make your own luck is a way of life. It means that even if you feel like everything and everyone is against you, you can make you own luck. You can create your own positivity even if everything around you may seem negative. West Boylston students overcome obstacles every single day in order to succeed, and in order to prove that, the junior, sophomore, and freshmen class officers chose one student from their class to share their story of resilience. Each class's story is included at the end of their section. To choose one student is difficult when there is so many that have shown resilience in every way, but the students asked signify the theme perfectly and were willing to share their journeys of resilience.

"In life, some people trip and some people fall, but some take that trip and make a beautiful dance out of it." - Rob Dyrdek

"It doesn't matter how you get knocked down in life, cause that's gonna happen. All that matters is that you gotta get up." - Ben Affleck

A Junior's Story of Resilience

"I have been through many things in my life that have required me to be resilient. I came to this country from Ghana, Africa when I was seven years old. I came with my mother and my brother, and we lived with my grandparents. At first, living with my grandparents was great. We were taking trips to different places, and I remember thinking at the time that the McDonald's playground was the greatest place ever.

Things really started going bad when my mother would leave for days without anyone knowing her whereabouts. My grandmother was very angry with her, and she would usually take her anger out on my brother and me. There were days when for no reason she would beat us, and because I did not want her to hurt my brother, I would push him away and have her beat me instead. It got to the point where I was afraid to go home after school, so I would purposely miss the bus or if I did get on the bus, I would sit at the bus stop for hours before going home. Not long after this started, my brother went to live at my aunt's house for most of the year when I was in third grade. He came home at the end of that summer.

I remember that about a week after I had started fourth grade, my grandmother pulled me out of school. I never took any of my things. For a few months, my brother and I stayed at home and did not go to school or out of the house. During this time, my mother was not home. One day, she came and I did not know what was going on, all I knew was that my grandmother was making me pack my brother's clothes, and there was a van waiting outside. There was a lot of chaos, and my mother would come in and tell me to come with her, but I did not understand why. Then she told me my grandmother was going to send my brother and me back to Ghana, so I should come with her. I got into her car and she drove off. I never had the chance to say goodbye to my brother. My mother and I lived at her friend's house for a couple of months, and one day she told me I was going to school. I honestly do not think I had ever been happier. That is when I moved here to West Boylston to live with my aunt. I had to deal with the effects of my previous living situation and the fact that I missed my brother. I really was not motivated to do anything, but my aunt pushed me to keep going and not to let those issues affect my schoolwork.

I have learned to forgive my grandparents for what they did to my brother and me, but I have not forgotten what happened."

A Sophomore's Story of Resilience

"This year has been a struggle for me as many of you know. On Christmas day, my family discovered that my brother, Matt, had passed away. The loss was really tough on my whole family, as most deaths are, but I hadn't exactly been on the best terms with my brother before he passed away and that only made things harder for me.

During this whole mess, the thing that I feared the most was returning to school. I didn't know if I would be able to handle seeing everyone and keeping myself together at the same time. Talking to people that knew what had happened was really hard for me. I felt like they thought of me differently. I knew I wouldn't be able to avoid school forever though, and finally I was able to gather myself together and come back.

I'm not going to lie and say everything was fine returning to school. The first few days were rough. Getting back into a schedule after such a disaster is hard, but it helps you at the same time. Being distracted helps you get your mind off things and makes it a little easier, but then you face the hard questions and the condolences. I did break down a few times in school, but lucky for me, I had amazing friends and teachers that were there for me whenever I needed them. I knew that if I were to give up and go home during one of these meltdowns, it would be even harder to get myself back to school, so I had to tough it out and try to make it through the day.

After those first few days, things started looking up. I was able to make it through most days without even thinking about my brother, in school anyway. But there will always be little things that remind me of him and what has happened, bringing me back to a tough place. Luckily, most days I am strong enough to avoid these situations and go through my day as I had before the loss.

There will always be a part of me that is different after the loss of my big brother. Thanks to the great people in my life and all the support I've been given in the past few months, I am able to pick myself up every day and return to my life as usual. Little things such as wearing my brother's old class ring and talking about him occasionally have made things easier. Though sometimes I may break down, the whole situation has made me a stronger person and will be a big part of me for the rest of my life."

A Freshman's Story of Resilience

"Resilience lies within us all, those who enjoy fighting off challenges and those who don't; it just takes a strong minded individual to bring out this trait when it is most desired. I bring out this trait in my everyday life, by balancing my busy schedule, by being determined to get everything done, and by reaching for the stars…literally. My true aspiration is to become a renowned astrophysicist/author, and I am fully aware that in order to fulfill this dream I will have to work my hardest every single day, not just in high school, but throughout life itself. Being only a freshmen in high school many people think that I should loosen up and enjoy life more, but they don't realize that just because you are a teenager does not mean that you have no responsibilities besides 'hanging out'. Many teens out there in this vast world are resilient every day, taking care and providing for their families, and getting their siblings an education. They could only dream of our lives, carefree, working a few hours to earn some cash, and handing in assignments on time. If these teens can be resilient and face life each day with a broad smile, then we must be resilient as well, and we all know we can be if we truly look within ourselves!"

JV AND VARSITY ICE HOCKEY CO-OP WITH ASSABET

RJ Delaney

In addition to playing Varsity Golf this year, RJ knew he wanted to play Varsity Ice Hockey. Since West Boylston did not have a team, Mr. Jones, our Athletic Director from last year, set out to find a team for WB to run a Co-op. He found Assabet Valley Technical School would allow us to Co-op with them. Mr. Turcotte completed the deal with Assabet. RJ visited the school committee meeting in October to request for the Co-op to be approved, and it was. Very few freshmen typically play for Varsity Ice Hockey, but RJ frequently played on the first line for the Varsity Team. Although he usually plays Center, on the JV Ice hockey team, RJ played defense all season and he scored four goals.

Anthony Himmelberger

In addition to playing for the Varsity Soccer Team at Tahanto, Anthony was invited to play Varsity Ice Hockey with Assabet Valley Technical School. Since he was already playing for a full-time select team, by those Connecticut League rules, he was not allowed to play for the Varsity Team. Instead, Anthony played for the JV Ice Hockey Team. The JV Ice Hockey Team's record was the best it has been in many years at 5-4-3. Coach Quinn is optimistic that, as the team grows in the next two years, we will see quite the winning team. On defense, Anthony is an integral part of the team.

WEST BOYLSTON LIONS
2012 SUPER BOWL CHAMPIONS

The varsity football team was a small town team, with every obstacle in their way. The Lions proved their resilience through heart and teamwork, and became champions. Every team member worked as hard as they could preparing for their moment of glory when they won the super bowl. The team captains, Tyler O'Day and Matt Loureiro led their team to victory and now the West Boylston Lions of 2012-2013 will go down in our town's history as the first team since 1988 to come out with a superbowl victory!

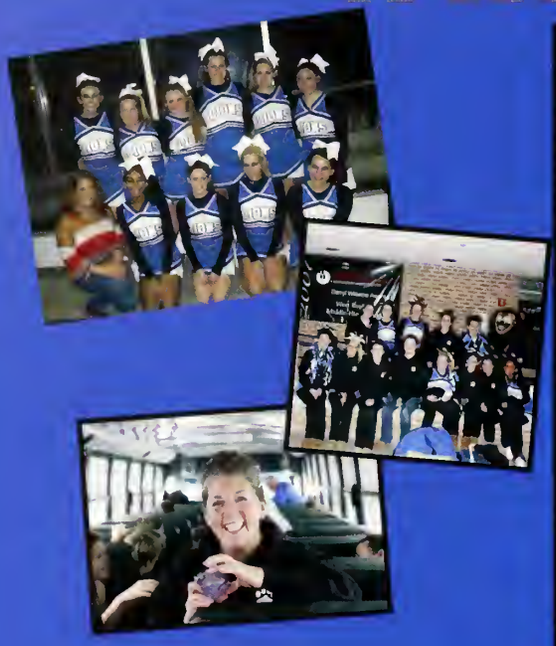
West Boylston Winter Cheer



This past winter season, the West Boylston cheerleaders faced a large array of setbacks and difficulties. Whether it was illness or injury, it seemed like the cheerleaders couldn't seem to all be healthy at one time. It would be easy for them to just give up and throw in the towel, but for them, that was not an option. They reworked routines, worked to get healthy, and kept their attitudes positive. The cheerleaders completely exhibit the theme of the yearbook and the theme for this year: resilience and making your own luck. With their determination, the girls came out victorious and were named league champions. They also earned fourth in Central Mass! Congrats Ladies!

A WBHS Production

Written By William Gleason;
Directed By Carolyn Somma

This play begins in 1243 and all is not well in the land of Saxonia. Darkness and discontent hang thick like sausages in a smokehouse. The reasonably handsome King Isadore is off to the Crusades to smite heathens and purchase porcelain. In his place, his creep brother Prince Viscera brings sorrow and fear to every hearth. There is also joy in Saxonia, for Isadore has not only left town but also left a son. The boy's name is Ivanha, and this is his story. It's a story of love and revenge. More than that, it's the worst play you've ever seen on stage! Return with us to those thrilling days of yesteryear when men were men, women were women... and squirrels were squirrels!

I Wish I Lived in the Forties

By Kelly Sorge

I wish I lived in the forties
With lace and floral galore
Men working day and night to protect us from the War.

If I lived in the forties
I'd have gone through struggles in life.
The Great Depression almost broke us
But we came back full of strife.

If I was a girl in the forties
Sinatra would be my man.
I'd swoon at his big blue eyes.
Being the ultimate fan.

I belong in the forties
For today I cannot wear
Floral dresses that go past my knees with feathered hats: people would stare.

I wish I lived in the forties
What a wonderful life that'd be.
But now I'm stuck in twenty-twelve
Looking back at history.

Treading Water

By Anonymous

Swimming in words
Drowning in thoughts
Panicking limbs
Flail in the dark

As deep, sinking sorrow
Settles into my lungs
I take one desperate breath;
My heart beats its last measure

Once so sure of my path,
I am blurred by the rain
Others' doubts and my own
Mix to smother my being

I can't lift a pen
To salvage my brain
I can't feel my tongue
To speak of this pain

Empty of such promise
Denied by all save myself
This once-hopeful girl
Swept away in the crush

The Boy in the Shadows

By Simran Dargan

I know it should not happen;
I know it cannot be,
For whenever I should close my eyes, there is only one I see.
Those dark brown eyes,
shining amidst the golden rays of sun.
Those humorous remarks;
resulting in the uncontrollable laughter,
always gleeful, always fun.
Now they remain alone in this memory only,
Every image displayed as if pictures, rumbling through this life; dark and lonely.
Those few moments indulged in your love,
awaiting your face,
awaiting your voice,
Are all trapped within this silent of all hearts.
I shall tread these paths,
now silent with grief,
without my love,
Oh give me the strength,
oh heaven above!

GUILT

BY KELLY SORGE

GUILT IS A BRIDGE COLLAPSING INSIDE OF YOU
IT CAUSES DESTRUCTION TO OTHERS
AS THE BROKEN PIECES RIP THROUGH YOUR HEART
GUILT IS AN UNCHANGEABLE EMOTION
THAT PIERCES VITAL ORGANS
UNTIL ALL THAT IS LEFT IS SORROW
GUILT IS A BROKEN RECORD
REPLAYING A NEVER-ENDING SERIES OF EVENTS THAT BRINGS YOU DOWN WITH EACH TAKE
GUILT PLAYS TRICKS ON YOU
AND FINDS YOUR WEAKNESS
GUILT IS THE REASON FOR MORE TO BE DONE
GUILT IS A HOT SUN
BURNING INSIDE OF YOU UNTIL
YOU HAVE NO CHOICE BUT TO LET IT TAKE YOU OVER

Dear Freshmen
By Jenna Coviello

When I first started high school, I was so excited to separate myself from the rude, obnoxious kids of middle school. What I didn't realize is that high school is not perfect, and those people never go away. Some do mature after a while, but others can't seem to grasp the fact that we're older now and soon won't have the security of this place any longer. Don't be discouraged, and don't be distracted by it.

Expect and try to challenge yourself. Always have in the back of your mind: college applications! High school is a whole new world, and there are so many opportunities out there. If one presents itself, take it. Be involved, and strive to be the best 'you' you can be.

Life is not easy, it's not supposed to be. Late nights will happen more often than you expect. I've gone to bed at four thirty in the morning before only to wake up less than two hours later. Yes, that's crazy. No, it is not usually that extreme. Manage your time; sometimes that doesn't even help, but it's one thing I wish I did more. Sleep is important, so get as much as you can.

If you have a good group of friends, hold on to them. Remind them how great they are and how much you appreciate them. We all take friends for granted too much. Yes, growing apart is possible, but keeping the same ones you've had since preschool is too. Don't let your true friends pass you by.

Be kind. Don't talk about people behind their backs or otherwise. Eleanor Roosevelt once said, "Great minds discuss ideas; average minds discuss events; small minds discuss people." It's no use making fun of someone; there is no gain. All it will get you is people making fun of you.

Stick up for yourself and what you believe in. If you don't like what someone is saying, speak up. If you don't like something about the school, try and fix it. Even if no one's on your side, if you have enough enthusiasm, you can accomplish anything. I didn't stand up for what I believed in for too long. You can't be afraid, or else you'll never get anywhere.

Enjoy it while it lasts. Everyone always says it, but it's completely true: high school flies by. Take advantage of the time you have, do the things you love and love the things you do. If you no longer love it or enjoy it, then it's time to move on. Life is short and being young is so much fun. Appreciate every minute of it and don't be afraid to be different. The "cool" crowd isn't always the best crowd. I learned that, too.

THE STAR

BY SIMRAN DARGAN

GLISTENING, GLEAMING ABOUT THE HEAVENS
WISHED AND PLEADED UPON ON THE MOMENTS OF NEED
TWINKLING ABOUT ALONG WITH THE MOON, IN THE BELOVED EMBRACE OF THE SKY.
WARMED ON THE INSIDE GRANTING UPON THOSE PLEADING CRIES.
IT KNOWS NOT OF WHAT IT IS AND HOW IT CAME TO BE...
SHE ONLY SITS THERE AND WONDERS;
AND GIVES US A WONDROUS IMAGE TO SEE

CLASS OF 2013: LUCKY 13 LISTS

THIS YEAR, SENIORS HAD THE OPPORTUNITY TO MAKE A LIST OF THIRTEEN THINGS IN HONOR OF THE "LUCKY 13". IT COULD BE ANYTHING THAT THEY WANTED. HERE IS WHAT THEY WANTED TO SHARE!

Andrea Tata's 13 Favorite Songs:

1. Dog Days Are Over by Florence and the Machine
2. Shake it Out by Florence and the Machine
3. Landscape by Florence and the Machine
4. The Story by Brandi Carlile
5. Into the Wild by LP
6. Landslide by Stevie Nicks
7. Send Me On My Way by Rusted Root
8. Simple by Katy Perry
9. Ride by Lana Del Ray
10. Mountain Sound by Of Monsters and Men
11. As It Seems by Lily Kershaw
12. Paper Bag by Fiona Apple
13. Viva la Vida by Coldplay

13 Things on Paris Dow's Bucket List:

1. Live amidst a poppy field.
2. Become an elementary school teacher.
3. Train a therapy dog.
4. Meet the members of Maroon 5.
5. Get a tattoo.
6. Drive cross-country and hit all the major landmarks.
7. Get married, have kids...all that good stuff.
8. Mature my photography abilities.
9. Be more confident.
10. Ride an elephant.
11. Tour Europe.
12. Witness a random act of kindness.
13. Continue to improve upon all aspects of my life.

Kelly Sorge's 13 Favorite Harry Potter Characters:

1. Hermione Granger
2. Sirius Black
3. Harry Potter
4. Luna Lovegood
5. Minerva Mcgonagall
6. Severus Snape
7. Molly Weasley
8. Ron Weasley
9. Neville Longbottom
10. Albus Dumbledore
11. Dobby
12. Fred and George Weasley
13. Rubeus Hagrid

13 Things Jenna Coviello Learned in High School:

1. As long as you see your awesomeness, it doesn't matter if other people don't see it.
2. It is possible to do everything you need to do; you just have to try really hard.
3. It's okay to fight for what you believe in, even if you are standing alone.
4. Dress the way you want and don't be afraid of judgment.
5. Overachieving is the best and worst thing you can do when working on assignment.
6. Honesty doesn't always help you, but it's way better than lying.
7. Some people are just mean, but you should always be friendly to everyone.
8. Your friends will change and not always for the better; if you grow apart, that's okay.
9. If you find the good ones, underclassmen rock.
10. Teammates truly do become like family.
11. Work your butt off; you may not get any recognition, but if you're proud of yourself, that's all that matters.
12. Getting a high-five from a coach is something to always treasure, because when they give one, it means you deserve it completely.
13. If you stay up late too often, it is possible to go through withdrawal symptoms for the 4-hour rest you get when you sleep too much...or a normal amount. Either way, it's not pleasant.

13 Things Bri DeBlois Wants to do In Her Lifetime:

1. Skydive.
2. Travel the World.
3. Fall in love.
4. Have a family.
5. Meet Taylor Lautner.
6. Go to a football game.
7. Race a car.
8. Own a Range Rover.
9. Live in California.
10. Change the world.
11. Fly a plane.
12. Bungee jump.
13. Scuba Dive.

Alanna Moriarty's 13 Most Nostalgic Songs:

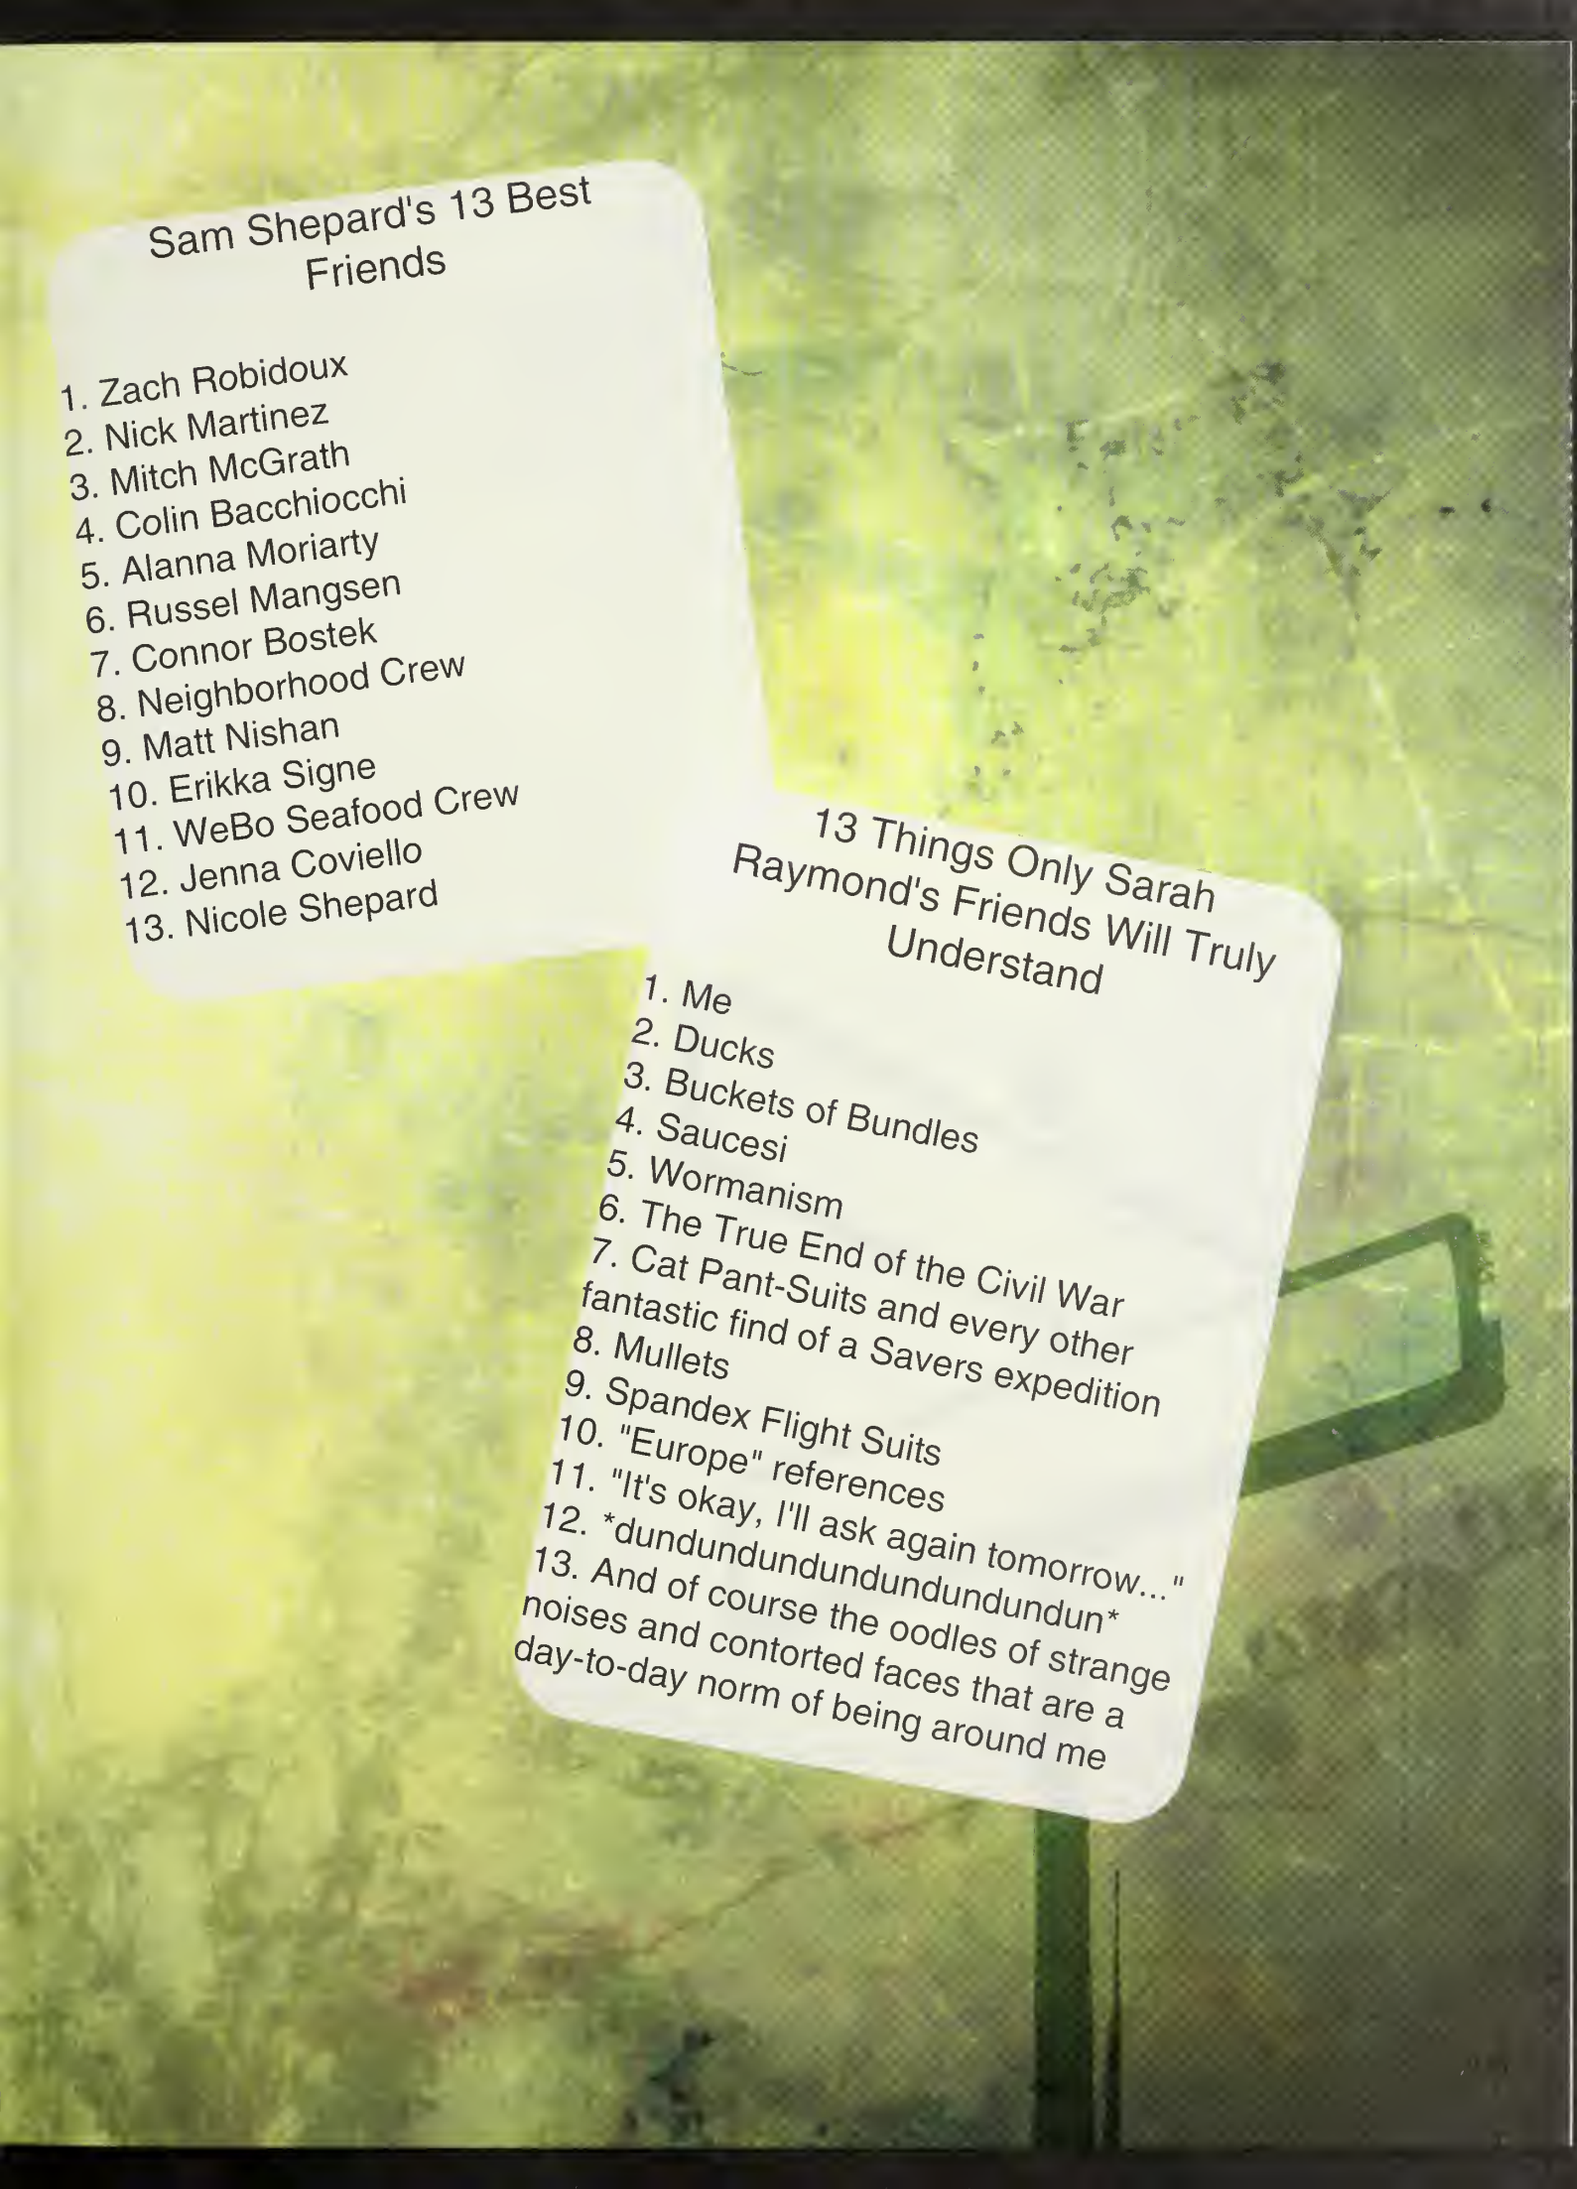
1. Daylight by Maroon 5
2. Believe by Cher
3. Landslide by Stevie Nicks
4. Dynamite by Taio Cruz
5. Don't Drop That Thun Thun Thun by Finatticz
6. Dear Maria, Count Me In by All Time Low
7. Drop the Pilot by Joan Armatrading
8. That's What You Get by Paramore
9. Sk8r Boi by Avril Lavigne
10. I Want Candy (Dead) by Geoffrey Paris
11. Mr. Brightside by The Killers
12. To the Left by Beyonce
13. If You Were Gay from Avenue Q

13 Things Emily Walker Could Not Live Without

1. My Family
2. My Friends
3. Clothes
4. College
5. Target
6. Walgreens
7. Cheetah
8. My iPhone
9. Jewelry
10. Fruit
11. Planet Fitness
12. Diet Coke
13. Spring

Rachael Baldi's 13 Things To Do Before You're Thirty:

1. Go somewhere you've never heard of and do things local to that area.
2. Create a recipe that people would pay money to get.
3. Fall in love as many times as you can with as many people as possible.
4. Learn to do something you would never think yourself capable of doing and become a master of it.
5. Watch an old television show or movie, fall in love with it, and be able to quote 95-110% of it.
6. Spend a day in a park, people watching with an acquaintance, and make up stories of the lives of people around you.
7. Become a theater critic for a night and see a play you've never heard of.
8. Spend every weekend for a month participating in a community program.
9. Go for a drive with your friends and have passengers take turns deciding whether to go left, right, and straight.
10. Belong to something bigger than yourself.
11. Listen to an elder tell stories of their glory days.
12. Read an outrageously cheesy book that has a movie adaptation, watch the movie, and compare which one is worse.
13. Be so passionate about something that people will hate you for bringing it up in conversation.



Sam Shepard's 13 Best Friends

1. Zach Robidoux
2. Nick Martinez
3. Mitch McGrath
4. Colin Bacchiocchi
5. Alanna Moriarty
6. Russel Mangsen

Quotes From Mrs. Tetler's Grateful Students After she was named 2013 Eastern Regional Secondary Art Educator of the Year!

Again Mrs. Tetler, Congratulations! I can't express enough how proud we are of your huge accomplishment and how thankful we are to have you teaching us here at little ol' WB. I'd also like to thank you for everything you do for those of us in NAHS. You give so much to the group, from resources to countless hours of your time, we would truly be nothing without you. You are a positively fantastic teacher who has taught me everything I know about art, but your kindness has often extended past the classroom. Your welcoming personality has made the art room my second home and made you a teacher I know I can come to with any of my problems. I can't imagine being taught by anyone else, which is going to make next year a little difficult... But don't worry, expect lots of visits, you can't get rid of me this easy! - Sarah Raymond, Class of 2013

Mrs. Tetler's art room is a wonderful place for creative students to express themselves. She inspired me to always continue to pursue my imagination and develop my skills as an artist. – Jill Pelto, Class of 2011

Congratulations Mrs. Tetler! You and your art classes were the single best thing about West Boylston. I can't think of anyone more deserving of this award, because I'm so grateful that you were there to help me get to where I am now. -Megan Pelto. Class of 2011

Mrs. Tetler led me to discover connections between art and my other interests, and those connections, I'm grateful to say, are still upholding to this day. – Christina Amaral, Class of 2012

Over my four years in high school, Mrs. Tetler's art room was a second home to me. She taught me the basics, new techniques, and eventually supported me with my own creativity and vision as I became a senior in AP art. She critiqued my art with encouragement, but with a highly analytical eye, which always pushed me to my limits. She knew that artists only improve with criticism, not with praise. Still, she did everything with a laugh or in a wacky English accent that I will never forget. Currently as a freshman at Parsons the New School for Design, I am thriving thanks to my strong foundation in art, and thanks to Mrs. Tetler. – David White, Class of 2012

Mrs. Tetler best prepared me for art school by giving me a hard time. I'm serious. She saw that I had a talent, but knew better than to let me skate by on technical skill alone; she challenged me to think conceptually about my projects, which is the core of any proper art education. I'm sure that I would not be where I am without her guidance. – Jared Fancy, Class of 2009

Mrs. Tetler is unlike any teacher you can have in high school. Many people look at an art class on your schedule as one of those "fill-in" classes, just a cop out to real work. No one thinks that with Mrs. Tetler's classes. I took General Art I my first semester of high school, and early on I learned just how tough a teacher Mrs. Tetler is. She critiques and gives you the necessary constructive criticism in order for you to make the best work possible. But along with that, she is one of the most kind-hearted people you come in contact with at West Boylston. She has a light about her and can make anyone an artist no matter how much they refuse to believe they can become one. – Jenna Coviello, Class of 2013

Mrs. Tetler has been the most influential teacher in my entire educational career. She is an amazing woman who helped change me from an arrogant little middle schooler who thought he knew everything, to the person I am today, someone who knows he has a lot left to learn. She took a real interest in my work and in my aspirations as an artist. She knew my capabilities and always pushed me to do better, never allowing me to settle for less than my best. As the advisor for NAHS, she helped me build my confidence as I spent the last two years serving as president. She encouraged me to go outside my comfort zone, both in my artwork and in my life. I couldn't be more thankful for her involvement and dedication as a teacher and mentor. She earned this award a hundred times over! - Corey Marsh, Class of 2013

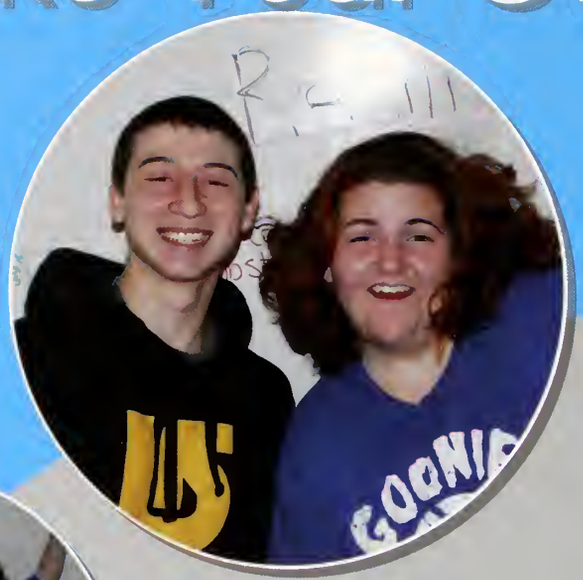
"Finish each day and be done with it. You have done what you could. Some blunders and absurdities no doubt crept in; forget them as soon as you can. Tomorrow is a new day; begin it well and serenely and with too high a spirit to be encumbered with your old nonsense." - Ralph Waldo Emerson

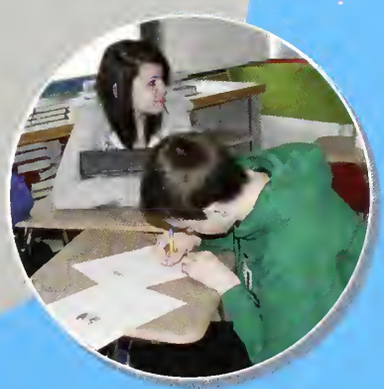


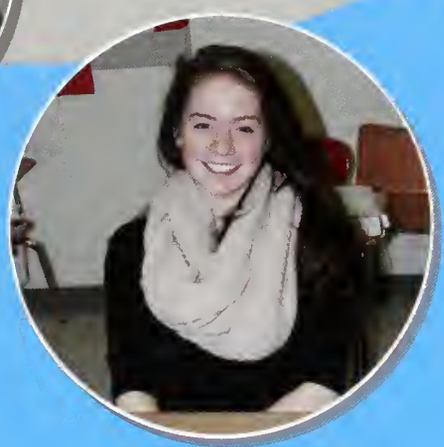
"Patience and perseverance have a magical effect before which difficulties disappear and obstacles vanish."

-- John Quincy Adams

"In the middle of difficulty lies opportunity."

-- Albert Einstein





"Character cannot be developed in ease and quiet. Only through experiences of trial and suffering can the soul be strengthened, vision cleared, ambition inspired and success achieved."

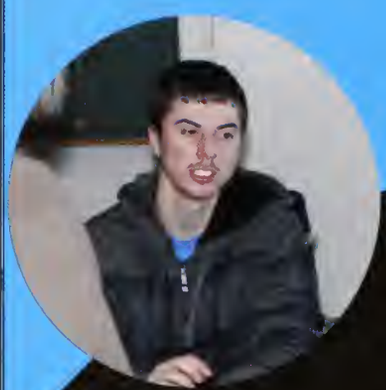
-- Helen Adams Keller

"All the adversity I've had in my life, all my troubles and obstacles, have strengthened me. . . . You may not realize it when it happens, but a kick in the teeth may be the best thing in the world for you."

-- Walt Elias Disney

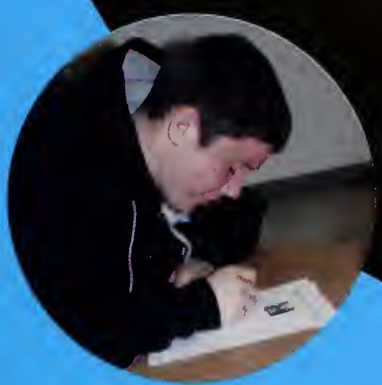
"I wanted a perfect ending. Now I've learned, the hard way, that some poems don't rhyme, and some stories don't have a clear beginning, middle and end. Life is about not knowing, having to change, taking the moment and making the best of it, without knowing what's going to happen next."

- Gilda Radner



"I haven't failed. I identified 10,000 ways this doesn't work."

- Thomas Edison



"It's hard to detect good luck - it looks so much like something you've earned."

- Frank A. Clark

"Your time is limited, so don't waste it living someone else's life. Don't be trapped by dogma – which is living with the results of other people's thinking. Don't let the noise of other's opinions drown out your own inner voice. And most important, have the courage to follow your heart and intuition. They somehow already know what you truly want to become. Everything else is secondary."

- Steve Jobs

Special Thanks from Ms. DeRosa, Yearbook Advisor:

I wish to formally say "Thank You" to Jenna Coviello, because you were an excellent Editor in Chief for this yearbook. Your hard work, creativity, and great writing skills shine throughout this book. Without you, and your perseverance, this book would not have been published in time for Graduation. The Seniors owe you a wealth of "thanks."

Tyler Armey and Julie Bardon: Thank you for always submitting work on time, and for making all of your work creative and detailed. I am lucky to have had you two on board with your phenomenal work ethic.

Alanna Moriarty: You have the patience of a Saint, while pulling together all of this Senior Class information! Seniors, please be sure to thank her for your awesome Senior Section this year.

Sarah Walker: Thanks for working with the Senior Section, but especially for pulling together the fabulous Art Section, when it needed to be done at the very last minute,

Caroline Delaney and Amina Zekeria: I know the Sports and Activities Sections were daunting, but thank you for pulling them together, and thanks to Amy Javier for completing the Faculty Section.

I Won't Give Up
by Jason Mraz

I don't wanna be someone who walks away so easily

I'm here to stay and make the difference that I can make

Our differences they do a lot to teach us how to use
The tools and gifts we've got yeah we got a lot at stake

And in the end, you're still my friend

At least we didn't intend
For us to work
we didn't break,
we didn't burn
We had to learn how to bend without the world caving in
I had to learn what I've got,
and what I'm not
And who I am

I won't give up on us
Even if the skies get rough

I'm giving you all my love

I'm still looking up

BRITISH POP BAND ONE DIRECTION released two hit albums in the U.S., making them the latest boy band sensation. One Direction's single "Live While We're Young" set sales records for a non-U.S. artist in its opening week.

FOR THE FIRST TIME IN 45 YEARS, a baseball player won the batting Triple Crown when Detroit's Miguel Cabrera led the American League in batting average, home runs and RBI.

AFTER 82 YEARS IN OPERATION, Hostess Brands, the maker of Twinkies, Ding-Dongs and Wonder Bread, closed up shop. The company, which was in bankruptcy, planned to sell its assets, leaving a glimmer of hope that another company would bring back the much-loved confections. The end of Hostess shut down 33 bakeries, 565 distribution centers and 570 bakery outlets, and 18,500 jobs were lost.

PRESIDENT BARACK OBAMA, a Democrat, won re-election with 62.6 million votes – 51% of the popular vote and 332 electoral votes – over his opponent, former Massachusetts Gov. Mitt Romney. Key battleground states, such as Ohio and Florida, went for Obama, as did a majority of women and minority voters. Republicans retained control of the House of Representatives, while Democrats kept control of the Senate.

NO MORE BIG GULP IN NEW YORK CITY. The sale of sugary drinks 16 ounces or larger was banned in the Big Apple at restaurants, movie theaters and street vendors. The move was the most recent in an effort by Mayor Michael Bloomberg to fight obesity.

SCIENTISTS CONFIRMED THAT KOSHIK, a 22-year old elephant living in a South Korean zoo, had developed the ability to imitate human speech by tucking his trunk inside his mouth. Koshik's vocabulary included the Korean words for hello, no, good, sit down and lie down.

THE BALTIMORE RAVENS WON SUPER BOWL XLVII IN NEW ORLEANS, defeating the San Francisco 49ers 34-31. The game featured a brother vs. brother coaching matchup between Baltimore's John Harbaugh and San Francisco's Jim Harbaugh. The Ravens built a huge lead behind quarterback Joe Flacco and receiver Anquan Boldin before holding off a late 49ers rally, while both teams dealt with a 30-minute second half delay due to a power outage in the Superdome.

FACING A SELF-IMPOSED Jan. 1 deadline of forced, wide-ranging tax increases and spending cuts known as the "fiscal cliff," Congress passed the American Taxpayer Relief Act of 2012. The act extended the Bush era tax cuts but raised other taxes, including the Social Security part of the payroll tax. Passage of the act averted a recession at that time, and Congress continued its work by preparing to discuss spending cuts.

THE SUMMER OLYMPICS took over London and the world's attention in August. The U.S. won Gold for only the second time ever in the women's gymnastics team event. Gabby Douglas, McKayla Maroney, Aly Raisman, Kyla Ross and Jordyn Wieber became known as the "Fierce Five." Jamaican sprinter Usain Bolt became the first man to ever win the 100 and 200 meters in back-to-back Olympics. Swimmer Michael Phelps won six more medals to become the most decorated Olympian ever.

NATIONAL HOCKEY LEAGUE OWNERS declared a player lockout less than a month before the start of the 2012-13 season. The labor dispute over revenues stretched into the new year, forcing the cancellation of more than 600 games before it was finally settled on Jan. 6., and the season began on Jan. 19.

HURRICANE SANDY BLASTED THE EAST COAST Oct. 29, killing more than 120 people from the Caribbean to New England. New York City and New Jersey were especially hard hit, leaving millions of residents without power and in short supply of food and gas for weeks. Damage estimates were put at $42 billion for New York state and $30 billion for New Jersey. The super storm, 820 miles in diameter, even created surfing conditions on Lake Michigan at Chicago.

FOR THE SECOND TIME IN THREE SEASONS, the San Francisco Giants won the World Series when they swept the Detroit Tigers in four games. San Francisco's Pablo Sandoval hit three home runs in Game 1 and was chosen the series MVP.

ALABAMA ROLLED to its second straight national title, and third in four years, by defeating Notre Dame, 42-14, in college football's BCS championship game. Running back Eddie Lacy ran for 140 yards and a touchdown, and was chosen one of the game's MVPs.

FACEBOOK INCREASED ITS PRESENCE in our lives. It bought Instagram, the photo-editing and sharing app for Android and iPhone users. It went public and began offering stock, enabling people to own a piece of the company. Facebook put more ads into the news feed of its mobile apps, and analysts waited to see if users adjusted or became annoyed.
